MICHELLE MCCULLOUGH

MAKE IT HAPPEN - THE 4 CHOICES THAT DETERMINE YOUR FUTURE SUCCESS & HAPPINESS

MONDAY, JULY 18, 2022 - 8:00 - 10:00 A.M.

Would you like to have more satisfaction and joy in your everyday life? Would you like to learn a simple technique that will help you communicate more effectively - personally and professionally? In this session, Michelle is going to share Make It Happen tools that will help you get more done with greater purpose and happiness. If you have a goal or dream, you're ready to take to the next level, or if you'd just like to have a little more satisfaction in life or your work - this keynote is designed to educate and entertain. Join us!

Michelle is a natural speaker and has wowed audiences large and small. Whether it's a group of high-powered entrepreneurs or a room full of high-energy youth, she will captivate, motivate and inspire. She was named the Top 100 Small Business Influencers with Inc Magazine, Michael Gerber, and Grant Cardone in 2015.

In addition to her business leadership and experience, Michelle is active in her community and industry where she serves on the board of the Utah Girls State program and served as president of the National Speakers Association Mountain West Chapter 2018-2019.

Her own radio show "Make It Happen" entertains and educates business leaders weekly. Since its inception, the podcast has had over 1.5 million downloads.

2022 CONFERENCE BREAKOUTS

R - Recorded for Virtual Conference

MONDAY, JULY 18, 2022 - 10:30 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.

101 – Greetings & Salad Dressing

Debbie Wade, CEOE, San Jacinto College District - Retired

Mix it up with a fun approach to work. Learn how to add new ingredients to your work day and guarantee less stress and more zest in your life and in the life of your customers. Come ready to have fun!!

102 – Emotional Wellbeing (R)

Kimberlie Rew, Premise Health

Emotional wellbeing is essential to our overall health and allows us to realize our full potential. It helps us cope with the stressors of life, work more productively, and connect with others. At the conclusion of this class, the participant will know their current perceived stress number, what causes their stress and how they cope with it. They will understand mindfulness and how it is connected to managing stress.

103 – Making A Difference (R)

Carrie Johnson, CHG Healthcare

If you have ever felt burnt out, overwhelmed, or undervalued in your role as an office professional, this session is for you! During this interactive and collaborative presentation, you will learn effective ways to make a difference in your schools and community. Through story-telling, reflection, and authentic connection you will find purpose and know how the work you do positively impacts people and changes lives.

104 – Take a Break - Stretching and Meditation for Your Everyday

Baihly Birdseye, Health & Wellness Consultant, GBS Benefits

Take a break and find five minutes in your day to stretch, breathe and meditate to re-center and re-charge.

105 – Become a Gatekeeper: Learn Strategies and Techniques to Support Suicide Prevention (R)

Kaye Poulton-Timm, Granite School District

Suicide touches everyone. Through this training you will become a gatekeeper to help prevent suicides. This training will provide information about warning signs, techniques, and resources that can be used in your professional or personal life to help save a life.

They will understand mindfulness and how it is connected to managing stress.

203 – Building a Website to Fit Your Brand

Jennifer Hedrick, CEOE, Richland 2 School District, Blythewood High School

When you look at a website, what are the things that attract you? Creating a brand is setting the tone and creating the overall picture on your website. We will explore the elements of brand with tangible concepts.

204 – Take a Break - Stretching and Meditation for Your Everyday

Baihly Birdseye, Health & Wellness Consultant, GBS Benefits

Take a break and find five minutes in your day to stretch, breathe and meditate to re-center and re-charge.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 2022 - 8:30 – 10:00 A.M.

301 – Put Your Best Foot Forward and Shake It All About

Debbie Wade, CEOE, San Jacinto College District - Retired

Step out and have fun as we learn how important teamwork, attitude, communication, networking, and laughter are in maintaining a positive, professional image in the workplace. Just doing our best is not always good enough so we must learn to put our best foot forward AND shake it all about!! Be prepared for some high-stepping fun!!

302– Slide on Over

Beth Heyden, CEOE, Perris Union High School District

As an office professional odds are you've been asked to create flyers, social media posts, presentations, postcards, brochures, or anything else that others might have dreamed up for you. If you've ever wondered how to do those within Google then slide on over to Google Slides! With some manipulation and a lot of imagination, you can turn your slide show into a number of other things that can help you with those extra assignments of creativity you're given. You may want to bring a laptop to get hands-on experience.

303 – Choosing Civility - No Stereotyping (R)

Audra Mead, Fox World Travel

Are you seeking ways to experience a world that is supportive and nurturing? Are you exhausted from the lack of mutual cooperation and respect you see around you? In this session, you will be provided tools to help you see yourself and others through the eyes of civility. Groundwork will be provided to facilitate your ability to create a world where civility can thrive.

304 – R.A.P. 101 (Reflect/Reinvent/Refocus and Recover After the Pandemic)

Georgette Council, CEOE, Richland School District Two

The impact of the pandemic on the way we conduct business has made us all pivot and do things differently. There is no shortage of lessons to be learned. The challenge is ensuring that you learn to R.A.P. - Reflect/Reinvent/Refocus and Recover After the Pandemic. The challenges are not over yet, but if we remain positive, pay attention and stay focused on what's really important, we will survive and emerge better personally and professionally.

305 – Become a Gatekeeper: Learn Strategies and Techniques to Support Suicide Prevention

Kaye Poulton-Timm, Granite School District

Suicide touches everyone. Through this training you will become a gatekeeper to help prevent suicides. This training will provide information about warning signs, techniques and resources that can be used in your professional or personal life to help save a life.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 2022 - 1:00 – 2:30 P.M.

401 – Put Your Best Foot Forward and Shake It All About

Debbie Wade, CEOE, San Jacinto College District - Retired

Step out and have fun as we learn how important teamwork, attitude, communication, networking, and laughter are in maintaining a positive, professional image in the workplace. Just doing our best is not always good enough so we must learn to put our best foot forward AND shake it all about!! Be prepared for some high-stepping fun!!

402 – The 12 Points of School Readiness

Jeff Johnson, Utah Division of Emergency Management

A Duty to Protect Schools: Since Jefferson founded public education for the citizens of the United States, schools have been charged with the safety of children in their care - a duty to protect. Teachers, administrators, and staff have a responsibility to anticipate potential dangers and to take precautions to protect their students from those dangers. Let's discuss Best Practices to keep our children safe.

403 – Establishing and Sustaining Associations

Mary Guest, CEOE, Immediate Past President, Teresa Himmelberger, CEOE, Vice President, Jackie Flood, CEOE, Secretary/Treasurer, Marie Freeman, North Central Area Director, & Vivian Champagne, CEOE, Administrative Council Chairman

Join this interactive discussion to explore ways to start an association and keep it going. You will learn the basics of how to establish an association and affiliate with NAEOP. We will brainstorm ideas to strengthen our associations and share our experiences and successes. Topics to be discussed include how to offer outstanding professional development at a low cost, strategic planning, networking, fundraising, member retention, and more. Bring your questions and ideas to get the information you will want to take back to your local and/or state associations.

404 – Presenting Like A Pro

Lola Young, CEOE, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

You will leave this briefing with a better understanding of things to consider prior to delivering a presentation, speaking at a meeting, or speaking in public. We will touch on first impressions, judgements, loss of meaning, nonverbals, attitude, laughter, and gratitude.

405 – Creating Culturally Relevant Environments (R)

Michelle A Love-Day, Jordan School District

Participants will explore ways to create a culturally safe space for students to learn. Office staff are charged with welcoming students and families. In this session participants will be encouraged to celebrate and integrate culture in all that they do within the office and school. Session activities will include creating their own cultural bag, identifying personal biases, and developing their cultural competence to work effectively with diverse students and families.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 2022 - 3:00 – 4:30 P.M.

501 – The ABCs of Team Building

Cathy Eberle, NYC Department of Education, Retired

This very interactive and fun presentation will help all of us be better team members - when it comes to working with others. We'll discover the importance of listening, cooperating and sharing what we all possess - the ability to get along as a team.

502 – The 12 Points of School Readiness

Jeff Johnson, Utah Division of Emergency Management
